Siena Lending Group LLC Closes $23 Million Credit Facility for SIFCO Industries Inc.

Siena Lending Group LLC (“SLG”), a leading provider of asset-based lending solutions, is pleased to announce the closing of a new senior secured credit facility for SIFCO Industries, Inc. (“SIFCO” or the “Company”), a global manufacturer of highly engineered, critical components for the aerospace and industrial sectors. The facility provides SIFCO with significant financial flexibility to repay its senior debt, support its growth initiatives, working capital needs, and overall business operations.

The new facility consists of a revolving line of credit and a term loan, providing SIFCO with access to enhanced liquidity and the ability to support its strategic business objectives. The unique structure enables SIFCO to leverage its functional strengths and optimize working capital.

“We are pleased to have reached agreement on a new credit facility with Siena Lending Group” said George Scherff, the Company’s CEO. “The SIFCO team now looks forward to a partnership that allows it to capitalize on the growing opportunities within the market segments it serves.”

“We are excited to support SIFCO’s ongoing success with this tailored financing solution,” said Nick Payne, Senior Managing Director at Siena Lending Group. “This new facility strengthens SIFCO’s financial position and provides the resources needed to accelerate growth and operational efficiency, allowing the Company to continue to be an innovative leader in a dynamic industry. We are also thankful for the opportunity to work alongside our trusted partners at Croley Martell as they led another successful execution.”

The transaction underscores Siena Lending Group’s commitment to providing customized financing solutions to middle-market companies across a variety of industries.
